The Memory Book

for nineteen sixty-one

published annually by the seniors

Rosary College

River Forest, Illinois

IN REMEMBRANCE

Mother Mary Samuel Coughlin was the Mother General of the Sinsinawa Dominicans from 1910 to 1949. During her term of office, Saint Clara College, renamed Rosary College, was transferred from Sinsinawa to River Forest. Mother Samuel is mainly responsible for the training of the faculty, the high intellectual standards, and the architectural beauty of the college. This extraordinary woman died on October 17, 1959, but her name and her memory will be permanently honored in the new residence hall, the Mother Mary Samuel Coughlin Memorial Hall.

The glory of Greece is our heritage. The Golden Age of Pericles exemplified all that was beautiful and excellent. These qualities are not lost but are mirrored in our own modern education: architecture, philosophy, drama, government, athletics and the very art of teaching.

The ideal of the Greek was to educate the whole man. Rosary College provides a modern counterpart: the liberal education. The close parallel between these ideals is obvious.

The following pages are intended to examine more fully this rapport between the Golden Age and the student life at Rosary College.

BIOLOGY

Every part of nature is wonderful and we should study every kind of life; for all will show us something natural and beautiful.

Aristotle

Pat Schafini, Dolores Galizia, Sister Mary Hilaire, O.P., Department Chairman. Standing: Sharon Carey, Antoinette Beland, and Donna Vanderheiden.

CHEMISTRY

In every thing that exists three principles can be traced: the matter out of which the thing arose and which contained the possibility of its existence; the form or actual nature which the thing possesses; and the negation or privation of all other natures.

Aristotle

Delores Ivery, Mary Chekewicz, Sister Mary Brandon, O.P., Department Chairman, Barbara Fritsch, and Daria Turula.

LANGUAGES

Speech is often stronger to persuade than gold.

Democritus

MUSIC

Music is a great and never failing treasure to those who have studied and learned it in youth.
Theophilus

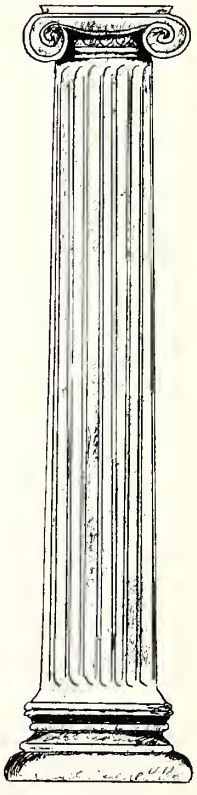
Mary Roubicek, and Sister Mary Gertruda, O.P., Department Chairman.

ART

The aim of art is to represent not the outward appearance of things, but their inward significance; for this, and not the external mannerism and detail, is true reality.
ARISTOTLE

Joan Zlotnik, Kathleen Brennan, Catharine Stewart, and Barbara Burghart. Sister Mary Guala, O.P., is the Department Chairman.

Organizations



We reach decisions on public policy only after full discussion, believing that sound judgment, far from being impeded by discussion, is arrived at only when full information is considered before a decision is made.

Pericles

The STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION is composed of all students and headed by a board of elected officers, the Student Council, who endeavor to solve student problems and serve as a bridge between faculty and students. Pictured are: Judy O'Leary, Kathy Brennan, Catharine Stewart, Geraldine Lauerman, Alice Henseler, Anne Rankin, Mary Di Orio, Carole Erb, and Betty Freehill. Seated: Sandra Rehan, Treasurer; Jean Hermann, Vice-President; Mary Ross, President; and Mary Anne Krokus, Secretary.

The GUILD, an all student organization coordinates and directs the religious, apostolic, and charitable activities of the students. Pictured are: Mary Cosgrove, Catechetical Committee; Antoinette Beland, Eucharistic Committee; Donna Vanderheiden, Treasurer; Betty Freehill, Prefect; Judy Baur, Class Representative; and Mary Ross, S.G.A. Representative.

THEOTOKEION, the Rosary College Honor Society, gives recognition to students who have achieved consistent high standards of scholarship. Members are, seated: Pat Sclafini, Geraldine Kline, Gail Hazekamp, and Mary Ross. Standing: Diana Cristaudo, Joan Weber, Niola Semenas, Dolores Galizia, Arlette Wroblewski, Daria Turula, and Mary Manton.

TORCH is an honor society for senior students who have shown outstanding qualities of Christian character, leadership and scholarship. New members are elected from the incoming senior class by joint vote of the faculty and outgoing members of the society. The chief purpose of the society is to assist the faculty in the freshman counselling program. Seated on floor: Mary Roubicek, Geraldine Kline, Jean Hermann, and Judy O'Leary. Others seated: Sue Behrmann, Eileen McNamara, Jo Anne Cusack, Betty Freehill, Edith Caylor, Anne Rankin, Mary Melocik, Carole Dagian, Mary Ross, Niola Semenas, Catherine Stewart, and Kathleen Toomey. Standing: Arlette Wroblewski, Sandra Rehan, Geraldine Lauerman, Angela Moran, Diana Cristaudo, Mary Anne Krokus, and Mary DiOrio.

The EAGLE is the Rosary literary magazine, published semi-annually. After the editors are appointed, they choose the staff from those whose writings or illustrations have demonstrated their ability. Pictured are: Judy Schneider, Kathleen Toomey, Barbara Burghart and Anne Rankin.

THE MEMORY BOOK staff is that group of frantic persons who created the "masterpiece" you are now reading. Its trademarks are empty coffee cups and filled ash trays. Staff members are: Kathleen Brennan, Barbara Seaman, Susann Reising, Cathie Crowley, and Barbara Burghart. Standing: Gail Hazekamp, Marlene Allessi, Judy Schneider, Beverly Dulude Jasinski, Donna Hutten, and Mary Manton. Kaye Griffin is not present.

Activities

And we have not forgotten to provide for our weary spirits many relaxations from toil; we have regular activities throughout the year; our home is beautiful and elegant; and these things cheer the heart and refresh the spirit as we see them every day.

Pericles

Sharlene Guy and Joan Kubes are among those enjoying one of our Class Picnics on the Rosary Campus.

Clowning in the lobbies is a traditional activity. The celebrities pose grandly for the camera while "Tex" Stewart hams it up with glasses in a prayerful pose.

Edith Caylor can tell you all about Iron Mountain, especially how it feels.

Two former classmates, Sister Michaile and Sister Laurine are bound for classes at Saint Clara Convent in Sinsinawa, Wisconsin.

Joan Kubes, Dolores Galizia, and their escorts sample punch and cookies at the Charity Ball. The Guild sponsored dance was held Saturday, November 12, in the college social hall.

Cathie Crowley gazes soulfully at her escort while Betty Freehill seems to be enjoying herself immensely against a background of swirling dancers at Rosary's Charity Ball.

Gerry Lauerman and Alice Henseler watch as Sister Fredericus and Sister Margarita exclaim over their gifts from the student body.

The occasion is Founder's Day, November 4, and the seniors appear for the first time in their caps and gowns. They are listening to Bishop Mendez.

Happy impersonators of the Kennedy clan pause a moment in their rehearsal of the "White House Christmas, 1960" scene for the Senior Christmas play.

In this scene of the Christmas Play, Scrooge threatens the Cratchitt family and a group of carolers as Marly's ghost hovers in the background.

Martians welcome the first earth people on the moon with a Christmas tree of green cheese. The Christmas Play is traditionally given by the Seniors.

Donna Vanderheiden holds this group's attention at the February SGA Ball, "Fantasie en Masque."

Pat Joy, senior, passes on the light of wisdom and knowledge to Mary Kavanaugh, junior. She receives in return the rose of love and rememberance in the symbolic Candle and Rose ceremony held on the eve of graduation.

IN MEMORIAM

Marilyn Anderson's plans to graduate from Rosary with our class were changed by the divine plan. She died January 25, 1959, after a long illness admirably endured. Her courage in the acceptance of God's will shall be an example to us long after we have left Rosary College.
